MLB Connection

Tip of the Prune Packer cap to recently MLB drafted Packers - Anthony Bender (Royals), Jordan Scheftz (Red Sox), and Ryan Luna (Rockies).

The Healdsburg Prune Packers are an historic baseball club, which spread its roots deep into the town's culture during the Roaring 20's and the Fabulous 50's. In 2012 the Prune Packers returned to Healdsburg and this year they have joined the prestigious California Collegiate Baseball League. Enjoy and be a part of the next chapter in Packer Baseball!

BIG CROWD ON SUNDAY

A big delegation of Standard Oil rooters, 50 or more strong, will be out at the University street grounds Sunday to root for the Sosfa team, which hooks up with the Prune Packers Sunday. J. J. Canevari, local manager for the Standard, has made arrangements to accommodate the visitors, who will come from all sections of the territory from Ukiah to San Francisco.

The Sosfa club, according to all advance information, is one which will prove the locals worthy of their steel, for it is said to be one of the strongest teams in the bay region. With Babe Danzig, veteran first sacker, and Roy Bliss, star southpaw, as the nucleus of the team and several other stars of lesser note in the lineup, it looks as if the Sosfas will give the Prune Packers a hard fight.

"Pop" Arlett is in Lake county resting up for the battle. Lou Goldenson will be back on the job at short, and the rest of the players will be on their toes to win this game, which they figure the toughest of the season.

The name, "Sosfa," by the way, is formed by the initial letters of the words, "Standard Oil, San Francisco Agency." That ought to clear up a lot of puzzling.

You spend a good piece of your life gripping a baseball and in the end it turns out that it was the other way around all the time.
